

Needs vs. Wants

Understanding our needs (the things that are critical to survive) versus our wants (things that are nice to have, but not necessary) is the first step to understanding how to budget.

Circle the items that are needs in red and wants in green. Discuss your answers with your parent/garden.

